

Goat Mineral

Available in 50lb

Purpose

Fortified with Certified Organic Kelp, our Certified Organic Goat mineral helps boost animal performance in both meat and milk production and boost overall animal health. Kelp is a nutrient dense product that supports hormone balance, lactation, and gestation. This mineral is also high in copper to aid the body in resisting parasites.

Feeding Instructions

This mineral is to be fed as a free-choice vitamin and mineral mix to supplement nutrition. Average intake should be 1/4 to 1/2 ounce per head per day depending on the mineral requirements of the animal.
